An order form and qualifications are included in this issue The Carrier. If you need more information, please contact Mrs. Frances Fox in the Jackson office.

More about the H D Miller Scholarship

History:

The H D Miller scholarship was formed in 1992, to commemorate the company's 50th anniversary and to honor the memory of H. D. Miller, Sr., founder of Miller Transporters, Inc. by providing educational opportunities for eligible employees and vendors of the Dewey Corporation or its subsidiaries.

Eligibility:

Scholarships may be awarded to the families of employees, contractors, or vendors to the Dewey Corporation or any of its subsidiaries. (Those subsidiaries include: Miller Transporters and Miller Intermodal (MILS).) The employee, contractor, or vendor must have five years of continuous service to any of the above named companies. The family includes spouses, children, and stepchildren. Applicants must have completed high school or the GED (or the equivalent.) The scholarship may be used at any two year or four year college or at a vocational school.

Determining Factors:

The scholarship recipients are chosen by The Scholarship Committee and the awards will be made on the basis of academic achievement, extracurricular involvement, and need. The award will be made by June 30, 2005.

Deadline:

You must have your application in by May 31, 2005. Please use the application provided and send it to the following address:
